From Seattle, WA to the big lights in Hollywood, our very own Anisa Stoot, let her little light shine on the big stage of America's Got Talent. She is a part of the celebrated Danell Daymon and the Greater Works Gospel Choir, who received glowing praises from the judges, yes even Simon Cowell, on Tuesday's night show. Their rendition of "This Little Light of Mine" brought the house down and the crowd to their feet. Our Anisa is in the front row with glasses singing her heart out.

Anisa Stoot, works on our Department of Commerce contract as an Security Assistant, sent the C3R Human Resource team an email entitled "Dreams," thanking C3R and her local government team for supporting her while she pursued her dream. See the attached link below for a complete viewing of the performance. When sharing Anisa's success with the Corporate Office, Mr. Claude A. Wood, President and CEO stated about her appearance on the famous TV show, "I think that's great! She is doing great work for us....and we are proud of her! I am happy to say we have taken very good care of her as a C3R employee. I'd like to think that is true about taking care of all C3R employees." C3R retains a very high rate of satisfied employees and government customers by demonstrating and showing how we care about their goals, wellbeing and their "Dreams". Keep letting your "Little Light Shine" and your dreams will continue to come true. C3R supports the team and demonstrates it with our ethos Character, Commitment, Courage, and Respect for every employee!!! <https://youtu.be/g0uOdGO6Bd0>
