DUMFRIES, VA

May 2018

Concord Crossroads, LLC (C3R) participated in the Virginia State University's 14th Annual Athletic Scholarship Golf Tournament on May 14, 2018 and with teamwork and perseverance won first place! C3R has participated in the scholarship tournament on six other occasions; however, is honored to sponsor the tournament at the Title level. The contribution supports the academic excellence in the Athletic Program at the Historically Black College University.

There were more than 90 golfers that participated in the day-long tournament. C3R entered four teams of players who were led by team captains. Those that participated are committed to supporting Virginia State University and are employees of C3R, alumni of the University, or loyal supporters of other HBCUs. Team captains supporting C3R included Master Sergeant Claudesedric Grace, Retired Army Rico Rourk, and Retired Army Ed Thompson. The proceeds from the Golf Tournament will benefit the VSU Athletic Department Scholarship Fund in support of the overall student-athlete experience at the University.
