DUMFRIES, VA

November 2017

The leadership of the Defense Threat Reduction Agency (DTRA) recognized Peter Armstrong, Protection Program Lead of the 75th Ranger Regiment, United States Army Special Operations Command (Airborne) (USASOC) for successfully completing a DTRA Assessment of the Command. Mr. Armstrong was acknowledged for his outstanding abilities to coordinate meetings and facilities on behalf of the organization and the installation stakeholders with the DTRA Assessment Team.

As the Program Protection Lead, Mr. Armstrong is responsible for the development, implementation, and maintenance of the Regiment's Operations Security Program. The Program requires a five-step iterative process that assists the Command in identifying specific information and data requiring protection and employing measures for Command protection to include: the Identification of Critical Information; the Analysis of Threats; the Analysis of Vulnerabilities; the Assessment of Risk; and the Application of Appropriate Operations Security Measures. Based upon this five step process, the DTRA Assessment Team documented that the 75th Ranger Regiment has the best Operations Security Program that they have ever seen as a result of Mr. Armstrong's commitment to excellence.

Concord Crossroads, LLC honors the outstanding accomplishments of Mr. Peter Armstrong in his continued extraordinary support of our Special Forces Command.
