Springfield, VA

December 2017

Mrs. Vanessa Atoyebi, Concord Crossroad, LLC (C3R) Human Resources Manager, was the first recipient awarded "Employee of the Year." In 2017, Concord Crossroad started its Annual Employee of the Year Awards Program. The honor is given to the employee who exemplifies excellence, exceeds performance expectations, engages in customer service, and upholds the company's values. For the past 10 years, Mrs. Vanessa Atoyebi has demonstrated all of these qualities and more, according to Mr. Claude A. Wood, C3R President and CEO. Mr. Wood reflects, "I do not have an employee that works harder day in and day out or who is more responsible than Vanessa." Mrs. Atoyebi was recognized during the Annual Holiday Dinner party held at Embassy Suites, Dumfries, VA on December 9, 2017.

She was truly surprised to be the company's first recipient. Mrs. Atoyebi states, "It is an honor to be selected in such a way. This experience has been wonderful; C3R is like working with family." Mr. Wood echoes this view, "She has been with C3R from the very beginning. She is the definition of the C3R Family." Mrs. Atoyebi further remarks that, "It just seemed like yesterday the company had only five employees. It has been fantastic to watch it grow from five employees to twenty- five to almost one hundred employees.

C3R First Annual Employee of the Year

The growth has been unbelievable.” According to Mrs. Atoyebi, “What I have enjoyed the most over the past ten years is the opportunity to speak with, to know, and to help our employees.”

She has trained the next generation of human resources staff as well. Brittany Crandall and Alexis Morris describe how much they have learned under her direction. Mrs. Atoyebi anticipates that the next ten years will be better than the first, as the C3R Family continues to grow and thrive. We could not agree more. Mrs. Vanessa Atoyebi, the C3R Family recognizes your exemplary attitude, efforts, and dedication. Congratulations Employee of the Year!!!
