DUMFRIES, VA

April 2017

Claude A. Wood, LTC USA Ret and President and CEO of Concord Crossroads LLC (C3R) attended the VSU Gala on March 25 2017. The Gala honored the Inauguration of Makola M. Abdullah, Ph.D., the 14th President of Virginia State University. The theme of the Gala, "Embracing Our Legacy While Transforming Our Future" was clearly articulated by the guest hosts, Ms. USA Deshauna Barber 2016, a VSU alumna, and Mr. Christopher Martin, a business and media entertainment expert. The week of festivities culminated on Saturday, March 25, 2017, with the University's second Inaugural Gala. Mr. Wood attended the Gala with his daughter, Ms. Deserai A. Wood, graduating senior from Hampton University. C3R was a Pearl sponsor of the event and contributed $10,000.00 which will be used for student scholarships and will support the General fund of the university. C3R is committed to supporting VSU and other HBCUs.

Mr. Wood said, "I am committed to supporting President Abdullah's commitment to expanding academic opportunities for students; pursuing an aggressive research agenda; recruiting and retaining top quality senior management, faculty, staff, and students; maximizing the fundraising opportunities; and strengthening community outreach throughout Virginia and beyond.” Since his inauguration in 2016, President Abdullah continues to recognize the strength between alumni giving and accomplishing the goals of transformative education. Mr. Wood appreciates this connection towards achieving academic excellence as well. He has been one of the most philanthropic supporters of VSU in recent years. In the past two years, Mr. Wood and C3R have generously supported the Athletic Scholarship Fund, the President’s Academic Scholarship Fund, the College of Business, the College of Agriculture Annual Conference, and the Trojan Dancers Fire Dance Team. He also is an active member of the Northern Virginia Alumni Association, The Athletic Booster Club, VSU Military Alumni Association, The VSU Powell Society, and VSU National Alumni Association. As a lifetime Trojan, Alumnus Wood continues to “Embrace the VSU Legacy While Transforming Its Future!”
