

C3R AWARDED CONTRACT TO SUPPORT DISA

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DUMFRIES, VA, August 2015:

The Defense Information Systems Agency (DISA) awarded a prime contract to CONCORD CROSSROADS, LLC (C3R) to provide support to their Continuity Program. The Continuity Program ensures that DISA can execute varying levels of continuity of operations within the agency. “The level of support our Analysts will provide includes the continuity of operations (COOP), planning, development and operations,” said President and CEO, Claude Wood. “We are looking to expand our footprint at DISA through this new contract, and hope to continue providing extensive analytical support,” he continued. The essential support provided to the DISA-wide program via this 5- year effort will allow for the expert technical capabilities to respond to various COOP events.
