C3R awarded the Department of Army Antiterrorism, Force Protection Threat Information Sharing, and Conference Planning Support Contract

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DUMFRIES, VA, May 19, 2015:

CONCORD CROSSROADS, LLC (C3R) announced today an award to continue support to the Army's Office of the Provost Marshal General. The work is a continuation of work being provided to the Army Antiterrorism Program. C3R will provide support to the Antiterrorism (AT) Branch with professional AT expertise to conduct research and produce a broad range of technical and doctrinal writing requirements. "C3R has provided this kind of critical program management support to the Army for over ten years and we are extremely excited to continue supporting the Army's program. The AT program provides policy and awareness for the protection and defense against terrorist, insider threats, and active shooters for Army military, civil servants, dependents, and property", said Claude Wood President/CEO of C3R.
